

Entente Florale Europe Results and Awards 2024

The below awards are based on overall marks achieved. This year the jury awarded 4 silver and 7 gold awards. All participants receiving gold or silver awards have achieved a very high standard overall and can take pride in their communities' achievements this year.

The Village	Ballinahown	Ireland	Gold
The Town	Carlow	Ireland	Gold
The Village	Chorušice	Czechia	Gold
The City	Debrecen	Hungary	Silver
The Town	Höxter	Germany	Gold
The Village	Meinheim	Germany	Gold
The Town	Miercurea Ciuc	Romania	Silver
The Town	Písek	Czechia	Silver
The City	Velenje	Slovenia	Gold
The Village	Vlčany	Slovakia	Silver
The Town	Zalakaros	Hungary	Gold

The jury also awarded the following special awards:

Special Awards

Award	Project	Participant
President's Prize	For the development of local 'Rain Gardens' built around the centre of Carlow town.	Carlow, Ireland
Herbert Titz Memorial Prize	For the 'Mary Garden' with the medicinal and herbal plantings, as well as intensive voluntary involvement.	Miercurea Ciuc, Romania
Green Space Award – with World Urban Parks	The highest (average) score for the criterion 'Green Spaces'.	Vlčany, Slovakia

Special Characteristics (Outstanding activities).

Participant	Special Characteristic
Miercurea Ciuc, Romania	For the promenade area and local involvement in the flower market

Debrecen, Hungary	For the annual and perennial planting schemes in the city centre
Zalakaros, Hungary	For exceptional water resources management
Velenje, Slovenia	For the exceptional tourism and leisure facilities
Vičany, Slovakia	For the new green spaces and inclusion of blue-green infrastructure
Hoxter, Germany	For the beds and displays on the banks of the river Weser
Meinheim, Germany	For the climate change mitigation and the use of local biogas and PV panels as well as the water management
Carlow, Ireland	For the Delta Sensory Garden
Ballinahown, Ireland	For the energy, enthusiasm, and involvement of the local community
Písek, Czechia	For the Lily planting beds in the streetscape
Chorušice Czechia	For the wide range of activities in landscape restoration, especially with the use of traditional fruit tree varieties.